

THE SOCIETY FOR CHRISTIAN SCHOLARSHIP IN MUSIC
PRESENTS

SCSM INTERLUDES

Interlude 2

December 9, 2025 | 7pm CT | Zoom

What's in a name? The Society of Christian Scholarship in Music did not always go by this name. The name change was prompted by discussions about how to communicate the values of the group in its title. In this Interlude, we look to discuss such questions as: Does the name continue to serve us? Is it welcoming to all we want to welcome? How does it resonant in our current cultural milieu?

What are SCSM Interludes?

The SCSM Interludes are a series of conversations that bring members of the Society, friends, and guests into discussion on topics related to music and religion outside of our annual conference.
